IS EVERYBODY HAPPY? Club members respond heartily to Ann Smith's questions on future programs.

EVERYBODY SINGS. Mrs. Eleanor Slick led the group in singing and did guest solo work herself. The regular program leader, Mrs. Louise Johnson, was absent. Piano accompanist was Marie Cease.

COFFEE AND CAKE. Mrs. Ross Ruhlman and Mrs. Betty Bova making table arrangements for refreshment time. Credit lines should go to Fae Christensian, and Lilian Walker.

THE GOLDEN AGE. The Golden Age Society of Warren is founded on the theory that a huge number of Warrenites past 60 would be made happier if given the chance to share their happiness with others. The Warren group is proving to be very popular with all who have come out and participated in the programs of singing and entertainment. Two weeks ago 96 people filled out registration cards for membership. Tuesday's meeting at the YW saw cards for 60 more new members.

JAMESTOWN GUESTS. Pictured are members of the Golden Age Society of Jamestown, N. Y. who appeared at Warren's meeting Tuesday afternoon, at which time they gave the local club a peppy pep-talk. The ladies are, l. to r., Mrs. Eunice Osborn, president of the Jamestown club; Margaret Nuttall, past president; Bertha Warner, Josie Van Gilder. Also with the Jimtown group, but not pictured, was Mr. Carl States.

NELSON JOHNSON who serves the club in an advisory capacity chat with behind-the-scenes worker Ann Smith.

FOR THOSE WITHOUT THEIR OWN. Transportation is a problem for some, but not many, according to the Jaycee Auxiliary who lends a hand when members of the society want to attend meetings but cannot possibly do so without outside help. Pictured is Mrs. Edward Betts, and Mrs. Thomas Schorman assisting Miss Ann Masterson of 829 Fourth ave.

COUNTY NEWS in brief . . .

The Circus Lands on Warren's airport, Saturday, when King Brothers comes to town with 150 performers, 250 animals, and a wild west show featuring Clarence Canary, and his horse Rowdy, both seen in many bang bang movies.

And there will be a parade at 11:30, one of the few presented by circuses these days, with bands, calliopes, fancy wagons, elephants, and cowgirls. The doors open at one and seven, the big shows start at two and eight. The Farrah Grotto is the local sponsor.

River Improvement enthusiasts, or at least those who want river transportation, will have their annual association convention at Emlenton, June 26. James H. Frantz, of Warren, is secretary and treasurer.

A Former Warren Man, once closely associated with the work of the river transportation promotion in this area, has been named by the United States Chamber of Commerce to serve on its public relations advisory committee. He is Yates Catlin.

Six Class A Drum Corps will compete in Warren's Fourth of July contest this year, and four already have been signed. To see them you will be able to purchase a reserved seat for $1.50, of which there will be a thousand.

The Fourth committee asks those who plan to enter floats to send in their inquiry cards. Leon Christiansen is in charge of this detail which includes bigger float prizes than those previously awarded.

And Miss Warren county candidates still are very much wanted. If you would like to enjoy sending your inquiry in on a neat, white bit of paper, on which it will be easy to write with either ink or pencil, clip the one you will find in the Observer. A future queen deserves the best from the very start, and you can't start too early making a good impression.

A Head-on Collision on the Irvine overhead bridge Saturday sent Mrs. Louis Vescio to the Warren general hospital and Charles D. Taylor of Hastings, N. Y. to the Warren county jail. Taylor, it was found upon investigation by state patrolman P. M. Smith, was driving a stolen car. The car driven by Taylor was owned by Nicolas J. Skolowec of Hastings.

Mrs. Vescio, an employee of the Warren State hospital, who was riding in the car with her husband is in "good" condition, according to hospital authorities. Property damage came to about $1000.

As So Often Happens when an accident causes a roadblock, as did the one above, other smash-ups are created; The Irvine bridge saw the pile-up of the following automobiles Saturday immediately after the Vescio-Taylor collision. Cars driven by John Mackenzie of Scranton, Richard Knight of Tidoute, and Paul Fedelle of Pittsburgh. None of the passengers was injured and property damage was slight.

State Police Investigated four other accidents which had a total property damage of $1700 and one injured. Harry Burroughs, 414 Chestnut st., Warren, was crowded off Rt. 62, six miles south of Warren, Friday, which caused his car to collide with a bridge. Damages $100.

Luther E. Eames of Willoughby, Ohio, lost control of his car on Rt. 6 two miles east of Sheffield causing his car to overturn. Helen Eames, a passenger, was admitted to the Kane hospital with lacerations of the head. Property damage, $200.

Joseph Karogler of Torpedo and Irvine Keener of Corry sideswiped on Rt. 127 five miles west of Tidoute Saturday, which rolled up damages to the amount of $1000.

Also on Saturday was a mishap between cars driven by George E. Greenwood of Allegheny, N. Y.; and Gordon Paradise of Montreal, Canada. These sideswiped on Rt. 59, seven miles north of Warren. There were slight injuries. Damages, $400.

Three Men Were Treated at the Warren general hospital early this morning for wounds sustained in an automobile accident on Rt. 59 about 6 miles north of Warren. The car was driven by Thomas Holcomb and he and two passengers, Robert Merritt and Homer Mott, all of Bradford, received treatment for lacerations of the head and were dismissed.

All Interested Citizens are invited to mail their contributions of one dollar or more to the Warren county Children's Aid Society for their annual membership drive which begins this month. This 65 year old organization endeavors to renew its old memberships and recruit as many new ones as they can. Recognized as one of the three accredited adoption agencies in Western Pennsylvania, the children's Aid Society is doing a great deal to help the unfortunate children of the county find homes, proper parental guidance and the kind of love and care to which every child has the right to expect.

No house to house campaign will be conducted. Just a reminder in the newspaper and on the radio is all that anyone will receive. If you care to contribute, write box 628, Warren.

The Society's new officers are: Mrs. S. L. Myer, president; Mrs. D. E. Conaway, first vice president; Mrs. P. E. Harrington, second vice president; Mrs. R. O. Wilder, secretary; Mr. W. M. Hill, treasurer; Mr. R. E. Dunham, asst. treasurer; M. S. Knox Harper, legal advisor.

Moving To Clarion is Brokenstraw Joint School Supervising Principal Paul R. Getts. Mr. Getts has accepted the position of Supervising Principal of Clarion Joint school system in Clarion.

Thirteen Future Farmers of America from Warren and Forest counties will participate in the 26th Annual Convention and Judging activities during June 8, 9 and 10, at Pennsylvania State University.

Those entering the dairy judging contest will be Gerald Votse, Rodney Rowland, Youngsville; Gene Gruber, Francis Spicer, Northern Area; and Delbert Wagner, West Forest.

The following will compete in the livestock judging contest: John Fedorchuk, Clarence Benedict, Youngsville; Keith Sweeney, Marion Abbott, Tom Firth, Northern Area.

James Allio, Tionesta, will represent the Warren-Forest-Elk Area in the tractor driving contest, and Robert Chase and Weston Wilcox will serve as delegates from the Warren, Forest area in the 26th Annual F.F.A. Convention proceedings.

Robert Albright, Youngsville; Karl Flowers, Tionesta; Richard Farver, Northern Area; and T. R. Sponsler, Warren, will assist in the various F.F.A. judging contest, educational demonstrations and other activities.

Electric Bills May Go Up

Thomas L. Stokes

WASHINGTON. -- A ghost sits figuratively at the side of President Eisenhower as he ponders selection of a successor to Gordon Clapp, who retired as TVA chairman recently after twenty years of service in that agency.

The ghost is the late Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska, who had more part than anyone in the creation by Congress of that great hydro-electric, conservation and resource-development project in the Tennessee Valley — a project that has done so much for Tennessee and neighboring states. So much, too, for the people of the whole nation as a "yardstick" in production of cheap power that has forced down utility rates and spread electricity widely. It also has become a model, now followed elsewhere in our country and abroad, for utilization of water resources for the benefit of all the people.

We may imagine the late Senator calling the President's attention to certain sections of the TVA Act of May 18, 1933, which were inserted at the Nebraskan's suggestion. He looked far ahead, knowing the devious means by which the TVA might be weakened or destroyed in future years. One means might be through a chairman who might destroy the great project from the inside. The chairman, who is designated by the President, is one of three board members. So Senator Norris took care of that in Section 2 (H), which reads:

"All members of the board shall be persons who profess a belief in the feasibility and wisdom of this Act."

In short, the chairman must be for it, and not give mere lip service.

Section 6 of the Act says: "In the appointment of officials and the selection of employees in said corporation, and in the promotion of any such employees or officials, no political test for qualification shall be permitted or given consideration, but all such appointments and promotions shall be given and made on the basis of merit and efficiency."

The chairmanship, then, cannot be a political plum.

With these restrictions, the field is narrowed for the President — which explains the delay in filling this most important post. How closely he is watched, the President learned a few days ago. At a news conference, in listing qualifications he is seeking in a chairman, he included a philosophical approach to TVA that agrees with his own. Immediately, from the Tennessee Valley area and from the Senate, he was reminded of the requirement in the law that the chairman must believe in TVA. The Tennessee Valley has been skeptical about the President's views and beliefs since he classified TVA as an example of "creeping Socialism."

In other agencies, including the Federal Housing Administration and important regulatory commissions, chairmen have been installed who had demonstrated by their past records that they were not entirely in sympathy with the aims of those agencies. But there was no law, as in the case of TVA, to prevent their appointment.

In following the law as regards TVA, which the President naturally is expected to do, he cannot acquiesce in the wishes of private power interests. They would like to "pack" TVA by appointment of a chairman who would be amenable to their purpose of slowing up TVA development and expansion. Thus they would hope eventually to kill it off and take it over themselves.

But, while check-mated in the chairmanship if the President follows the law, the utilities are busy along many fronts in their campaign to weaken and, if possible, destroy George Norris' great dream. The campaign is highly financed. For example, the National Association of Electric Companies, the lobby for the electric utilities, reported expenditures last year of $547,789. Its director here, Purcell Smith, proudly includes reductions of TVA appropriations in the last session of Congress among his achievements.

Cutting appropriations is part of the utilities' pattern for devitalizing TVA. Thus they can stop the construction of additional facilities, chiefly steam plants, that are so sorely needed to meet the constantly growing power needs in the Tennessee Valley area — not only for the Government and its atomic-energy installations, but also for the people and private industries. The utilities then would move in to supply the power themselves — at a higher rates, of course. Thus, gradually, they would circumscribe the area and nullify TVA as the "yardstick" it has been so successfully — in fact, too successfully for the private power interests.

so of course I had it on when I had my Pixy Pin-up picture taken at Penney's.

"That PIXY photographer was so nice, I just had to smile back!

"My picture cost only 49¢!

"Ask your mom to watch for the ads in the newspaper—I hear the Pixy Pin-up photographers are going to be back in the Penney store real soon!"

ALLIS-CHALMERS

Forage Harvester

Every hour you save is important. Flavor, feed value, and color fade quickly. Capture that quality! Home-harvest big tonnage with the Allis-Chalmers Forage Harvester. Silage is uniformly and cleanly chopped . . . not chewed or shredded. The knives are power-sharpened right in the machine . . . plus stone-stopper knife protection.

See us about this big-capacity machine that takes less power to operate.

Newspaper Reading Time

For years we have been amazed at the support given outside papers by many Warren residents. We can understand the wish for more extensive coverage than can be afforded by a local, but some of these papers are so deficient in their service that it is astounding to see the public calmly accept it.

We fail to understand what news value there is in papers which have gone to press so many hours before reading time that they fail to give you anything that resembles late news. And some publish Sunday and holiday editions that obviously make no effort to give you the latest. Yet you are paying big daily prices.

Another disappointing aspect of many outsiders is to sell themselves as area papers, assuring you news coverage for this section. They may carry a few obituaries and a smattering of news sent or called in the day or night before, but outside of their emphasis on semi-sensational spot news they fail to fulfill their promise.

Let us take a pair of examples. This past week-end the sportsmen of the area naturally were interested in two items. One was the state track meet in which many communities of the area had boys entered. But the outside paper which we read told us nothing except how the boys in its own city came out. We waited until Tuesday to learn the facts.

The golfers were interested in the Colonial Open. In it was Ben Hogan, and when Ben finishes first, fifth, or tenth it is news. We waited until Tuesday to learn how they finished. Dependent on radio we listened to one sports reporter (?) reveal the top two or three names while spending ninety percent of the time with a lengthy tirade on nine dozen baseball games. Why they don't include the probable pinch-hitters for tomorrow's games, we'll never know. They are almost that silly and might as well go whole hog.

But we are peevish about non-resident sheets which sell themselves as late news venders and area reporters. There are a few good ones, such as the Youngstown Vindicator, which incidentally does not pretend to cover the area news, yet seems to be fresher and more timely than any we read in the section. The paper pays well, too. Perhaps that explains some things.

These would-be major league papers with the big promise and the small delivery roughed up Warren county's feathers in fine style during the recent murder trial. Their comments on our citizens' reluctance to serve on a jury which must practice an eye for an eye, and their remarks about our quality of justice were shallow and uninformed. And comments on justice coming from some cities are iornic. Their city linen isn't the cleanest we ever have seen and papers in those areas will keep themselves very busy if they work in their own backyards.

Such quips as, "If you want to commit murder go to Warren county because no one is ever sent to the electric chair," suggest a complete lack of knowledge about the Warren county situation. First, we have a very limited need for first degree murder trials here. It isn't that kind of county. Second, two previous defendants were sent to the chair but were given life by big city politicians, of which the governor was one!

We now are interested in what will happen to Mr. Moon, after he leaves Warren county. Quite probably he will go from here under a sentence of death. What the big time boys on the higher benches and in Harrisburg will do, we have no idea. But don't blame it on Warren county if the picture changes.

We believe it is a credit to Warren county that it has so few trials of this nature, and that such situations reveal an approach that is kindly, understanding, lacking in vengefulness, yet intent on seeing that a penalty is paid, a penalty that is sufficient, yet perhaps leaving the real penalty to be meted out by someone more capable of justice, someone all of us must face, whether we be the killer or the jurist.

WBEN-TV

Buffalo

launched by CBS in July 1946.

Each Monday evening four talented professional performers, screened from thousands of applicants, are given an opportunity to display their abilities for a national audience. Winners are selected by studio audience applause. In addition to receiving a cash prize, winners are introduced to producers of stage, movies and radio, and are awarded engagements on the weekday morning Arthur Godfrey Time show.

The addition of Talent Scouts to WBEN-TV's Monday evening schedule, means that every Godfrey television show now is on WBEN-TV. Arthur Godfrey Time Monday through Thursday mornings at 10:30 and Arthur Godfrey and His Friends Wednesday evenings at 8, have been regular features of the station for years.

New Learn & Live Series

A new, one-week series of Learn & Live programs will be broadcast by WBEN-TV beginning Monday morning, May 31, at 9:30, titled "Career Target: Teaching." The moderator will be Dr. Marvin A. Rapp of the New York State College for Teachers at Buffalo.

It's Great to GRADUATE!

The educational stature you have attained will prove of lifelong value. Now many of you will enter your chosen field of life, where there are no diplomas, but still numerous lessons to be learned.

One of the most important lessons is the wisdom of setting aside part of your earnings regularly in order to reach the goals you cherish most. A practical and convenient way to build this personal reserve is through a Savings Account in this progressive bank.

State Track Meet

Warren's lone entry in the state scholastic track meet did better than most boys from this area. John Fisher placed third in the javelin. Dick Winger, of Oil City, turned in the best performance, gaining a first in the mile with a run of 4 minutes 32.2 seconds.

Dick Wood, of Youngsville, was fourth in the Class B 100. Erie entries did nothing, the great Charlie Baker, finishing fifth in the 100 and the 220 with a game leg.

Independent Baseball

Ludlow opened its week-end schedule with a 24-2 spanking of Edinboro on Sunday, with Gray, Holden and Juban as the Wildcat battery. Whitaker and J. Thompson slugged homers.

It then played host to the Jamestown Bombers in a Penn York loop opener, on Monday, and lost in eleven innings, 12 to 11. Ludlow tied it in the ninth with four runs, but the Bombers came back with a double and triple to win. King pitched to Juban for the Cats, and the big slam was a homer by Jamestown's Duboas.

The Ludlow nine takes on North Warren at the Hospital, Saturday, at 2:30, and plays host to Sherman, Sunday at 3.

Industrial Softball Schedules

Monday, June 7 - Keystone vs. Texas Lunch, West Side. Warren Merchants vs. Struthers, Beaty.

Tuesday, June 8 - Thomas Coupling vs. Emblem, West Side. Wednesday, June 9 - Keystone vs. Struthers, West Side. Thursday, June 10 - Texas vs. Thomas Coupling, West Side, Warren Merchants vs. Emblem, State Hospital.

Athlete Of Year

Gannon College has named George Hesch, of Warren, its athlete of the year. We will take it a step further. We believe he would give any candidate a race as athlete of the year for his home town.

Hot Stove Plans

Rain knocked out the opening games of the Hot Stove league this week. The regular meeting was held Tuesday and William Oehlen-schlager, of Youngsville, was named recording secretary to replace Gib McCullough, who is unable to attend the sessions. Time of the meetings now has been changed to 8:30.

Bantam league equipment was distributed at this week's meeting and the Jaycee baseball trip to Cleveland was explained by John Smith.

It also was learned that presidents of the various baseball and softball leagues are meeting this week in an effort to avoid field confliction. The Sunset is scheduling its games around the Hot Stove to relieve the situation.

Softball Lead Unchanged

The Merchants continue to dominate the Warren Industrial softball loop. They maintained their undefeated record this week by taking the Texas, 12-11. Thomas Coupling made it a three-way tie for second with Texas and Keystone Garage, at two and two, by lambasting the Keystone, 10-3.

Shoots Golf Qualifier

Paul Porter, new golf pro at the Conewango Valley Country Club, will be in Pittsburgh, Monday. He will be shooting in the National Open qualifier.

New Golf Courses

Jamestown has approved the construction of a nine hole municipal course, which probably will be built near the stadium in Falconer. Boosters started selling charter memberships for a dollar Wednesday.

And in Warren there are men who are considering the possibilities of providing Warren with a nine hole course. They have the site, but may be stalled by the cost.

The game of golf is rolling right along. Despite the money invested in major baseball leagues and their farm systems, twice as much was spent on golf equipment last year as was spent on baseball!

Learn To Swim

The Warren YMCA is planning a learn to swim campaign for those who do not belong. To be eligible you must be in the fourth, fifth or sixth grade, and the classes will be limited to one hundred boys. The boys will be divided into classes of twenty-five and there will be school on the pool every morning, starting at nine o'clock the week of June 14. You can register June 9, 10, or 11.

Meanwhile, the gym classes for members will move into the pool during the summer, using the afternoon hours. Saturdays will be reserved for special groups.

Swimming for the girls and ladies also is scheduled. The women eighteen and up will swim from 8 to 9:30, Tuesdays. The rest will swim on Thursday, the beginners from 2 to 2:45, the nine to seventeen from 2:45 to 3:30, and those who have had a year of swimming will take to the water from 3:30 to 5, divided into two classes.

Big Golf Play

It was a golden week-end for the golfers who have had a wet spring. Three tournaments were played at the Conewango Valley Country Club, the main event being the mixed two-ball foursome competition for the Horace Cray cup. This was won by Jack Hamilton and Mrs. Marie Hamilton with a gross 85 and a net 67.

Second at 68 were Mrs. Phil Prichard and Tim Creal. Tied for third at 69 were Mrs. Robert Voigt and Chuck Blackman, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Alexander.

A best ball tournament on Sunday was won by Leon Connelly and J. A. Loranger with a net 61. Walt Dremann and Larry Amy were second with 66.

A best ball tournament on Saturday was taken by Dr. Wally Sedwick and Bob Ritchie with net 62. Pete Juliano and Bob Walsh were second with 66.

In the weekly men's tournament on Thursday, Pete Juliano led the scoring with an even par 36. Bill Lundahl was second with 38, and Dr. Jim Giunta tied with Stan Korb for third at 41.

Joe Gobliger was the handicap winner with 34. Tied at 35 were Ken Graham, Claud Schindler, and Dr. Walters.

This Thursday the boys will shoot against par using 7-8ths of their handicap on a hole by hole match play basis.

Hot Stove Calendar

OBSERVATIONS

By Bob Walsh

McCarthyism Pin-Pointed

Many people have asked us to explain what the McCarthy hearings were all about. After watching them for a few days they had become completely confused and were certain of only one thing — our so-called leaders were putting on a sorry exhibition.

We believe everyone, including the top-rank observers and commentators, have been made a little dizzy by the comedy of exchanges points of order, and obvious political speeches that are supposed to comprise a serious hearing. To many it has become little more than a case of the pot calling the kettle black, or vice versa. And to others it has shaped up, as they had contended at the start, to be little more than a committee investigating itself in a confusing blur of whitewash.

Last week the hearing got right back to where it began. On the record now are completely opposite claims by the principals involved. The army and the McCarthyites are in complete disagreement as to who said what when. How the liar will be found is not clear to us, but we are certain that the public has seen enough facial acrobatics to reach the conclusion that all is not right with either side and that Washington would be in better shape if many of the boys, such as McCarthy, Cohn, and a few army big-wigs, would go home.

Finally A Light

Last week the public finally got some meat to chew when McCarthy and the Eisenhower administration came face to face in open difference. McCarthy was told that executive branch personnel had no right revealing information to anyone, including him. McCarthy made the most of this by declaring that no one would stop him from hunting out communists and that personnel which was truly loyal would be "duty bound" to reveal facts about its departments.

These exchanges also involved who was responsible for seeking out and prosecuting security risks in the executive branch. Atty. Gen. Brownell said that the executive branch has the sole responsibility for protecting the nation's security. McCarthy came back with the statement that the congress has the duty to expose the failure of the executive branch.

McCarthyism

And so we get back to a practice known as McCarthyism, over and around which this fiasco revolves and has revolved since the first as far as the majority of thinking Americans are concerned. And we again must remember that it is not the hunting out of subversion that is wrong, or who hunts it out. Our objections have been zeroed in on the method used.

If the method were correct, both Brownell and McCarthy would be right. It no doubt is the duty of the executive branch to protect our security, and there is no doubt that we elect congressmen to see to it that the job is done. If our security is weak we certainly do not object to those congressmen revealing the fact and doing something about it.

We do object to blank indictments of hundreds of people without substantiating facts. We object to publicly calling people communists without naming their accusers. We object to the news release trial and persecution of good men and women without giving them a day in court.

We object to violating our constitution by not giving the accused an opportunity to face his accuser. That is McCarthyism!

And that is why we say that the hearings finally got around to an issue that pin-points this problem. We believe that an employee is duty bound to reveal facts which will expose subversion. But he should not be allowed to whisper those suspicions. They should be placed on record as definite proof, proof that will hold up in court, and certainly not proof to be used promiscuously in public statements that place a blanket suspicion against many innocent people.

McCarthyism is not limited to a fellow by that name. Because he has been so much involved in committee work and because he has made sensational statements, many of them on the Senate floor where he is safe from slander action, his name has been used to define this dictatorial method in America.

But because of McCarthy and because of a bascially poor security plan which invites such a method, fear has crept into our nation. Fear has taken over and we find we are denied such minds as Oppenheimer's. Our leaders were well aware of this man's background. He had been screened and had been considered no risk. But because of fear, fear that McCarthy would make a sensational announcement concerning these known facts, a statement was released and our scientific progress in the world race for defense know-how was greatly weakened.

We Have Faith

We believe that the inherent love of liberty and the basic goodness of people will combine to overcome these retarding practices which have crept into almost every corner of our nation. McCarthy hearings and open discussion are healthy stuff. They bring the facts to the surface and interest many people who had shrugged off McCarthyism. In fact, many didn't know what the word meant. They didn't realize it was a danger to their own freedom and liberties.

RADIO AND TELEVISION

By John Crosby

THEATER TELEVISION

It has always been my view that theater television - that is, TV that you have to go to a theater to see and pay an admission to get in - is a contradiction in terms. The whole essence of the revolution in entertainment wrought by TV is that it brings it into your homes. When you do go out of an evening, it is not to see television.

However, there are some events that, too expensive for home television or for one reason or another, are forbidden to home TV, and in these fields, theater TV is having a modest success. Theater Network Television, for instance, has signed a three-year contract with the Metropolitan Opera to broadcast the Met's opening nights. T.N.T. hopes to pipe this into 100 theaters (a wildly optimistic figure) in some fifty-seven cities. They'll be charity affairs in each city and this will help boost attendance.

No one knows how well this will do. T.N.T. televised "Carmen" from the Met, more or less as an experiment, in 1952 to about 70,000 people in thirty-one theaters. If you want to see the Met opening, theater TV will be the only way to do it - short of going to the Met itself. Years ago, Met openings were carried on home television but now the cost of cancelling three and a half hours of commercial television is prohibitive. Nathan L. Halpern, president of T.N.T. estimates it would cost half a million dollars to televise opening nights for home audiences.

Opera lovers will be properly horrified at the effect of theater television on Met openings. Next fall the Met will depart from all tradition by presenting, not just one opera, but scenes from its most popular operas. The program will open with the prologue to "Pagliacci", followed by the first act of "La Boheme" and act two of "The Barber Of Seville", with three scenes from "Aida" as the finale. This potpourri will permit the use of as many stars as the Met can load on its stage. Seems to me it'll be more like the Ed Sullivan show than an opera - but that's the way things are going to be.

Opera is the only form of entertainment that T.N.T. has monkeyed with. With the competition of home TV, all other types of entertainment are pretty impractical (although Halpern still talks wistfully about some day putting on huge variety shows or musical extravaganzas with a lot of name stars.)

Four or five years ago, Halpern predicted that one day theater TV would carry Broadway plays to theaters all over the country. That has not come to pass yet but Halpern thinks that eventually it will. Right now Broadway producers are asking much too much money under the reasonable assumption that once televised their own box office would be dead. There aren't enough theaters equipped for theater TV to meet these demands but some day - maybe this year, maybe next year - there will be. (One of the enthusiasts for theater TV is Lawrence Langner, director of the Theater Guild.)

The mainstay for T.N.T., as for its competitor, Box Office Television, is sports. Sporting events have the element of actuality, the attraction of who's-going-to-win. T. N.T. has theater-televized eleven championship fights, all major outdoor fights. TNT's first fight between Ezzard Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott in 1949 almost caused a riot at the Fox Theater in Brooklyn. The theater seats 4,300 and 5,000 persons squeezed in and another 5,000 were turned away. Business isn't that brisk any more but it's still pretty good for fights. TNT's next fight will be the Marciano-Charles fight in June which MISS AMERICA 1954, Evelyn Margaret Ay of Ephrata, Pennsylvania. Winner of the $5000 Miss America Pageant Scholarship Award at Atlantic City on September 12, 1953. Evelyn's local contest was sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Ephrata. The Pennsylvania state contest was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of West Chester. The finals were held in the beautiful Phillips Memorial Auditorium of West Chester State Teachers College. The prize was a four-year college scholarship.

it hopes to put into sixty-seven cities. (New York and New England will be blacked out to protect the gate.)

T.N.T. carried college football for a couple of years but dropped it because Halpern feels there is too much competition from free home television. The only football team which will pull a decent crowd into a theater is Notre Dame whose fans are in a class by themselves.

T.N.T. also has a lively sideline in closed circuit telecasts - it calls them Tele-Sessions - of business or government meetings. Dodge Motors, for instance, held a coast-to-coast dealer's meeting via Tele-Session. The Frank H. Lee Company showed all its salesmen its fall hat line on color television. And in 1952 volunteer workers in cities scattered around the country took a course in civil defense training via Tele-Session.

The Ladies Speak

The food store proprietor who thinks that all he needs is a good price to attract business should study the survey made by the National Association of Retail Grocers. The ladies who buy eighty percent of the food were contacted and their answers may prove startling to you.

Asked what they look for in a store they placed cleanliness in number one position. Their next choice was a store where there is friendliness and courtesy. The next important factor was self-service. Then came true quality of merchandise, and fifth was freshness of perishables. Away down in sixth position as an attraction was price.

It amuses us, however, to note some of the qualities which rated below price. One was honest weight and another was fair dealing. Last was guarantee of merchandise. Apparently the housewife is confident of her own ability to judge these things.

Marquette University made a study among women who had quit shopping at certain food stores. Forty-five percent of them gave bad manners as their reason for avoiding a store. Thirty-one percent gave bad housekeeping, or uncleanness as their reason for quitting. Twenty-seven percent said the prices were too high. Seventeen percent said they stopped shopping at a store because of limited choice. The other reasons were divided among the remaining eight percent.

Insurance Guide

Those very fancy promises made by many insurance firms may be thoroughly exposed soon. A master list of over 800 companies who deal in health and accident insurance is being prepared. For each firm there will be a revelation of the actual benefits you can expect, and there will be a comparison with the protection promised in the company's ads. You will be able to read the difference.

The result will be a shoppers guide for those who are buyers of health and accident insurance policies. The list will be available for a modest fee. The Observer will tell you when and where. It also will have one available in case you wish to check.

Plymouth Fights Back

The wide advertising campaign recently made by Buick has placed it among the big three. It now is selling more cars than Plymouth. These ads have revealed the base price for Buick, and the result has

Washington And You

By Margaret Chase Smith

WASHINGTON. -- Some observers are wringing their hands in great despair over the recent steps that our Government has taken with respect to the growing threat of Communism in Central America. They are horrified that we have reportedly sent shipments of munitions to Nicaragua and Honduras. This, they say, is not peaceful and plays into the hands of the Communist propagandists in Guatemala. They contend that we have made a mistake in taking this action -- been a slice into the field where Plymouth, Chevrolet, and Ford have had full sway. The result also has been unkind to the other small cars, but Plymouth is the one overtaken.

But the Chrysler Corporation will fight back. The first step will be a co-op campaign in 3,500 newspapers and on radio and TV to reveal what a very fine car Plymouth has to offer. It actually is rated by some buyers guides as one of the best buys on the market.

Offensive Advertising

Inasmuch as this paper has been one of the few which have made an attempt to be just a bit particular about their advertising copy, the results of a survey made by Printers Ink and uncovering the following principal complaints against ads on the local level, should interest our readers. They learned that the customers, or the potential customers, were most displeased with these characteristics:

1. Bait advertising, particularly for appliances and automobiles;
2. Insurance advertising by companies that do not live up to their claims;
3. Phony sales copy;
4. Comparative disparagement.

5. Phony food-freezer plans; 6. Offensive medical copy that is written within the law but violates good taste.

And there were some others, such as misleading claims, offensive use of sex, obnoxious copy (either obnoxious advertising of accepted products or advertising of obnoxious products), scare copy, copy that derides and discredits the advertising of others, suggesting that they are not telling the truth, and sacrilegious copy.

You may not agree, but if you are preparing ad copy this may tell you how many buyers feel, and if you are a buyer it may reveal that there are many people who are fully aware of some unethical approaches which may have fooled or escaped you.

that by doing so we have unified the anti-American feeling in Guatemala and have thus strengthened the hands of the Communists there.

They don't like the action of our Air Force in sending three of its intercontinental B-36 bombers flying over Nicaragua -- even though Nicaragua requested that we do so. They don't like the action of U. S. customs officials inspecting a French freighter going through the Panama Canal and reportedly carrying contraband arms to Guatemala.

They say that we are acting precipitously and unwisely -- that we are getting belligerent without any justification. They want us to stop such firm action.

All this they say in spite of the fact that Guatemala has been going Communist. All this they say in spite of the fact that the Reds have been shipping arms into Guatemala from a satellite country of Russia. All this they say in spite of the fact that Guatemala is thumbing its nose at the United States and the Monroe Doctrine, and is making warlike gestures that threaten the peace and security of Nicaragua and Honduras.

Yes, they say all this in spite of the fact that it is becoming increasingly clear that the Reds have established a beachhead in the Western Hemisphere in taking over Guatemala, and are apparently trying to make Guatemala the Korea and Indo-China of the Western Hemisphere.

They said these things when I urged American boycotting of Guatemalan coffee and introduced a resolution in the Senate designed ultimately to accomplish that objective. They contended, with great anguish, that my resolution, if passed, would strain relations between this country and Guatemala.

How long will they stick their heads in the sand? How long will they refuse to face up to the ugly and unpleasant facts? How far do they propose that we let the Reds go in the Western Hemisphere right under our noses before we take a firm stand? How close do they propose that we let the Reds get to our shores before we start taking real and positive measures to protect our national and hemispheric security?

Do they want us to wait until the Reds have taken over the Central American countries one by one, starting with Guatemala and then prompting Guatemala to invade and conquer her neighbors? Do they want us to wait until that Red pattern of conquest has engulfed all of South America before we stand up to the Reds?

Of course, we must keep our heads level and our powder dry until the right time. But perpetuated caution becomes entrenched timidity, and entrenched timidity leads to appeasement -- appeasement which is nothing less than surrender on the installment plan.

WELCOME ALL. Behind those panes is a new snack bar at the Warren General, with take-out sundaes and milkshakes for the convenience of patients. The bar serves visitors, patients, and hospital personnel. It is conveniently located and may be reached through the passageway in which the photographer is standing, leading from the emergency room. It also can be reached from the door at the rear of the lobby. Hours are from 8:30 to 8:30 from Monday through Friday, and from 8:30 to 4 on Saturdays.

POPULAR SPOT. The new Snack Bar at the Warren General hospital recently opened and now is in full operation. It was provided by the Hospital Auxiliary and most of the work is done by volunteers, who are becoming adept at making hamburgers, sundaes, and numerous other edibles of a tasty nature.

MOVING SOON. This building for many years has been visited monthly by customers of the electric company, known at the present time as the Penelec. There they have paid their bill or purchased a bus ticket. Next month this will change. The bus station will continue to do business, but the Penelec offices are pulling out to the Eddy st. plant. Bills then will be payable in two locations, the new offices where there will be plenty of parking space, or the Warren Bank and Trust Company, which will provide this service. Meanwhile, the public wonders what will replace the Penelec. Will it be a car agency, a retail store, or offices?

THESE LEFT TUESDAY EVENING for service with the armed forces: 1. to r., Ralph R. Strong, Kinzua; John G. Lucia, R. D. 1, Youngville; and the group's leader, Leonard F. Conticello, Warren. Two other young men who were scheduled to leave with this group were transferred earlier. They were, George R. Seavy, Tamaqua; and William P. Taylor, Gary, Indiana.

STORM AFTERMATH. Tuesday noon Warren was visited by a twister that knocked down TV antennae, loosened roofs, and felled a few trees. However, this big fellow on Fourth ave., near Liberty, didn't split in two for another twenty-four hours. Then one of its major limbs crashed over two cars. One was completely buried and had much damage done to the roof. Fortunately, both were parked and the drivers were not present.

Owner of the most seriously damaged car was Ruby Merkle, of Warren, R. D. 3. The other owner is unknown by police.

RAIN OR SHINE. In Tuesday afternoon's downpour Larry Matherson and George Fago of East street school as did other members of the school patrol all over town, stood their post.

You needn't travel far to discover good party-line service

To be a good party-line neighbor, remember to release the line reasonably soon when someone else is waiting to use it . . . and hang up gently when you find the line in use. Your party-line neighbors will return the courtesy. Result: better telephone service for all on the line!
